

FEATHER AND FUR

During the month of February Al and Brenda Cretney are having a show at the Seymour Library in Brockport. Al has been carving all types of birds since he was in his fifties. The birds he has chosen for the show are decoys, song birds, owls and more. Brenda has been painting with watercolor since she retired from teaching. Most of her paintings are of animals or animals with their people.

